I am a graduate of Agro-Industrial Technology from Universitas Gadjah Mada with a strong focus on Quality Control and Assurance in the food industry. My academic background has provided me with a solid foundation in production systems, process optimization, and product quality evaluation. Currently, I am working in the field of Quality Control, where I apply analytical and problem-solving skills to ensure product consistency and compliance with quality standards. I am passionate about continuous improvement and committed to contributing to a culture of excellence in product quality and safety. Additionally, I possess strong communication and teamwork skills, enabling me to collaborate effectively across departments.
