I am a Pharmacist graduate from Universitas Padjadjaran with a background in pharmaceutical and cosmetic analysis. I have hands-on experience in laboratory testing, analytical instrumentation, and product and material evaluation through my academic and professional experiences. These experiences have strengthened my analytical thinking, attention to detail, and ability to work effectively in fast-paced, team-oriented environments. I am particularly interested in the pharmaceutical, cosmetic, and FMCG industries, with a focus on QC, R&D, QA, and Production. I am eager to contribute my technical knowledge and practical experience to support product quality, safety, and compliance while continuing to grow professionally.
