

DIFFA ZAHRA ARIANSYAH

082133244624 | diffazahra13@gmail.com | www.linkedin.com/in/diffazahra

Daerah Istimewa Yogyakarta

Apothecary professional graduate with strong motivation and commitment to contribute to the pharmaceutical field, particularly in the pharmaceutical industry. Possesses practical experience in Quality Assurance at PT LAFI AU, with exposure to quality systems, documentation, and compliance with Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP). Demonstrates a strong interest in quality assurance processes and continuous improvement within pharmaceutical manufacturing. Developed professional skills through academic training and internship experiences, including analytical thinking, attention to detail, and problem-solving. Highly adaptable to new environments, able to work effectively both independently and in teams, and capable of performing under pressure. Known as a responsible and detail-oriented individual with good communication skills and a strong willingness to learn and grow professionally.

Work Experiences

PT. Sapta Sari Tama - Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Nov 2025

Pharmaceutical Distribution Intern

- Monitoring the process of procurement and distribution of medicines up to the receipt stage to ensure compliance with the standards of Wholesale Pharmaceutical Traders (PBF) and the principles of Good Distribution Practice (GDP).
- Carrying out the receiving and verification process of pharmaceutical products based on delivery invoices to ensure the accuracy of quantity, product types, batch numbers, and packaging conditions according to quality specifications.
- Preparing and distributing medicines using the FEFO (First Expired First Out) principle, alphabetical system, and grouping based on dosage form to maintain product quality and distribution traceability.
- Supporting the implementation of inventory control and stock management to ensure data accuracy of stock and maintain product quality stability during storage and distribution processes.
- Systematically recording and documenting medicine distribution as part of the implementation of quality assurance, regulatory compliance, and quality management system.

Puskesmas Bambanglipuro - Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Oct 2025 - Nov 2025

Clinical-Community Pharmacy Intern

- Carrying out prescription services and drug dispensing accompanied by Drug Information Services (PIO) to ensure the safe use of medicines, correct dosage, and appropriate therapeutic indication for patients.
- Assisting in the compounding and preparation of medications based on doctor's prescriptions while paying attention to accuracy, patient safety, and compliance with Standard Operating Procedures (SOP).
- Supporting the management and distribution of medications according to pharmaceutical service standards in primary healthcare facilities.
- Recording, documenting, and reporting pharmaceutical activities systematically as part of implementing quality assurance and regulatory compliance.
- Contributing to the monitoring of pharmacy services to ensure that operational processes run according to quality standards and patient safety.

Industri LAFI AU - Bandung, Indonesia

Aug 2025 - Sep 2025

Industrial Pharmaceutical Intern

- Carrying out testing of raw materials and finished products in the Research and Development (R&D) laboratory using analytical methods according to procedures and pharmaceutical industry standards.
- Supporting Quality Control (QC) activities through the execution of product quality tests to ensure compliance with quality specifications and regulatory requirements.
- Participating in the implementation of Quality Assurance (QA) to ensure all production processes and final products meet Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) standards before the distribution process.
- Conducting sampling, processing testing data, and laboratory documentation systematically according to data integrity principles and the quality management system.
- Understanding the quality system workflow in the pharmaceutical industry, including quality control, evaluation of test results, and product quality verification processes.
- Contributing to quality monitoring activities as part of the quality compliance process and continuous quality improvement.
- Learned about qualifications starting from Design Qualification (DQ), Installation Qualification (IQ), Operational Qualification (OQ), and Performance Qualification (PQ).
- Deviation Report (DR) and Quality Risk Management (QRM).

Rumah Sehat dan Apotek UGM - Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Jun 2025 - Jul 2025

Community Pharmacy Intern

- Conducted prescription screening and review to ensure accuracy of indication, dose verification, drug interaction assessment, and appropriateness of therapy in accordance with pharmaceutical care standards and applicable regulations.
- Provided Drug Information Services (PIO) to patients regarding usage, storage, stability, and potential side effects to enhance patient safety and medication compliance.
- Managed receiving, storage, and distribution processes of pharmaceutical products in accordance with Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) and principles of quality assurance and regulatory compliance.

- Performed inventory control by verifying the consistency between physical stock and recorded data to maintain accuracy and support the quality management system.
- Monitored product expiration dates regularly to ensure product quality met safety and quality standards.
- Conducted systematic documentation and reporting of pharmacy operations as part of implementing the quality management system and good pharmacy practice.

Rumah Sakit PKU Muhammadiyah Gamping - Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Apr 2025 - May 2025

Clinical Pharmacy Intern

- Conduct screening and review of prescriptions for inpatient and outpatient patients to ensure drug safety, dose accuracy, and therapy appropriateness in accordance with pharmaceutical service standards and applicable regulations.
- Carry out the dispensing and preparation of medications according to standard operating procedures (SOP) while paying attention to aspects of quality assurance and patient safety.
- Participate in ward rounds with the medical team to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness and safety of drug therapy (drug utilization review and therapy monitoring).
- Support the implementation of pharmaceutical service quality assurance through documentation, verification of drug therapy, and compliance with the principles of Good Pharmacy Practice (GPP) and health service quality standards.
- Provide patient counseling regarding medication use to improve compliance, medication adherence, and therapeutic outcomes.

Education Level

Universitas Alma Ata - Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Aug 2019 - Dec 2023

Bachelor of Pharmacy, 3.40/4.00

- Served as a Teaching Assistant, assisting lecturers in delivering course materials, guiding students, and supporting academic evaluations with an emphasis on accuracy and documentation.
- Completed undergraduate research (thesis) using a scientific and analytical approach in the pharmaceutical field.
- Graduated with a strong foundation in Quality Control (QC) and Quality Assurance (QA) principles.
- Consistently maintained high levels of accuracy, attention to detail, and compliance with procedures throughout academic activities.

Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta - Yogyakarta, Indonesia

Jan 2025 - Apr 2026

Certificate in Apothecary, 3.85/4.00

- Graduated with cumlaude predicate

Organizational Experience

Organizational / Academic Engagement

Nov 2021 - Dec 2023

- Participated in academic-based activities and collaborative coursework, demonstrating strong teamwork, communication, and coordination skills.
- Contributed actively in group discussions, case studies, and project-based assignments related to pharmaceutical sciences.
- Developed time management, responsibility, and adaptability through intensive academic workload and laboratory activities.
- Engaged in structured learning environments that emphasized discipline, compliance with procedures, and accountability.
- Built strong interpersonal skills through collaboration with peers and lecturers in both theoretical and practical settings.

Ability, Awards, and Competition

- Soft Skills: Prescription screening, dispensing & compounding of medicines, Drug Information Services (PIO), monitoring adverse drug reactions (MESO) & pharmacovigilance, pharmaceutical supply management, as well as understanding of pharmaceutical regulations (CPOB, CDOB) and clinical pharmacy services. Possesses basic knowledge related to Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) and qualification (IQ, OQ, PQ) of machines, equipment, and services. Skilled in using Ms. Office for documentation and reporting..
- Hard Skills: Meticulous, communicative, analytical and systematic thinker, quick to adapt, able to work independently or in a team, has good time management, disciplined, and possesses a high motivation for learning and commitment to quality and patient safety.
- Achievements (2026): National Competency Examination for Pharmacy Profession Students (Metode CBT)
- Achievements (2026): National Competency Examination for Pharmacy Profession Students (Metode Objective Structured Clinical Examination / OSCE)